ERIC Clapton is far more than a rock star, he is an icon and a living legend. His guitar playing has seen him hailed as 'God'. Eric Clapton is one of the premier musicians of our times. He is the perfect example of a musician who seems to have no filter between his feelings and his playing.

The CARLOS engraved CP-1 system was installed in Eric Clapton's Black Beauty Martin guitar, named EC & HF (Eric Clapton & Hiroshi Fujiwara) in Stuttgart on March 30th 2004. Same evening Eric celebrated his 59th birthday in front of 13.000 visitors. This unique system was commissioned by Lee Dickson, Eric's guitar guru for nearly a quarter of a century. The "Eric" engraved CP-1 system was shortly after installed in Eric Clapton's 00028-EC guitar in April 2004.

VICENTE Amigo is a spanish virtuoso flamenco guitarist of the new generation of Flamenco, considered as one of the greatest living flamenco guitarists, in succession to Paco de Lucia. He is also one of Carlos Juan's personal favourite musicians and owns a prototype of this model, while Jazz-Superstar George Benson owns a ser.#001 of "Vicente" Black Box Edition.

Eric Clapton performs "Wish You Were Here" with Roger Waters for Tsunami Relief on May 20, 2005. Note the CP-1 "Carlos" through the soundhole, mounted on guitar's back. (Photo: YouTube video clip)
